

Dear Constituents,

Every year, Canadians lose millions of dollars to the activities of scammers who bombard us with online, mail, door-to-door and telephone scams.

My hope is that by sending information out to my constituents, you will be able to stay on top of scams, inform yourself on how to recognize the various types of scams and protect your personal information by visiting the links I provide for you on the back.

Scammers target people of all backgrounds, ages and income levels. Scammers are imaginative and manipulative. They know how to push your buttons to produce the response they want. Below you will find some pointers to remember to help you beat the scammers.

Remember, if you spot a scam, or have been scammed, don't be embarrassed to get help. Please contact my Goderich or Port Elgin office for assistance.

Sincerely,

Ben Lobb

Member of Parliament,

B. Loll

Huron-Bruce

Debunking the Myths

- There are short cuts to wealth that only a few people know: This is not always true. Ask yourself the question: if someone knew a secret to instant wealth, why would they be telling their secret to others?
- Scams involve large amounts of money: This is not always true. Sometimes scammers target a large number of people and try to get a small amount of money from each person.
- Scams are always about money: This is not always true. Some scams are aimed at stealing personal information from you.
- All internet websites are legitimate: This is not always true. Websites are quite easy and cheap to set up. The scammers can easily copy a genuine website and trick you into believing it is legitimate.

Information on Lottery & Contest Scams

Many Canadians are lured by the excitement of a surprise win and find themselves sending immense amounts of money to claim fake prizes. You cannot win money or a prize in a lottery unless you have entered it, or someone else has entered on your behalf. You cannot be chosen as a random winner if you don't have an entry.

Many lottery scams try to deceive you into providing your banking and personal details to claim your prize. You should not have to pay any fee or tax to claim a legitimate prize.

Don't be fooled by claims that the offer is legal or has government approval—many scammers will tell you this. Instead of receiving a grand prize or fortune, you will lose every cent that you sent. If you have provided any personal details, your identity could be misused too.

A fake prize scam will tell you that you have won a prize or a contest. You may receive a phone call, an email, text message, or see a popup screen on your computer. There are often costs involved with claiming your prize, and even if you do receive a prize, it may not be what was promised to you.

PROTECT YOURSELF: Legitimate lotteries do not require you to pay a fee or tax to collect the winnings.

HELPFUL LINKS

Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre

www.antifraudcentre.ca

The Competition Bureau's Information Centre www.competitionbureau.gc.ca

Canadian Consumer
Handbook on the Office of Consumer Affairs

www.consumerhandbook.ca

Canadian Council of Better Business Bureaus

www.ccbbb.ca

Canadian Revenue Agency

www.cra-arc.gc.ca

If you do not have access to a computer please contact my office for assistance

Were you a Victim of Fraud?

If you believe you may be the victim of fraud or have given personal or financial information unwittingly, contact your local police service and my office.

Produced using excerpts from "THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK OF SCAMS—THE CANADIAN EDITION" by the Competition Bureau of Canada

